

“Mezekir”

Invincible

The will power induced,
The faculty of the mind,
From the heart and soul produced.
Indubitable frames of thought,
Voluptuous deeds to conjure,
Legitimate changes to be brought.
Incorruptible actions all the way,
Fight the impasse and do away.
Assembly of nations should unite,
Before all become contrite.
The invincible popular power to divulge,
With unlimited devotion, reverence and courage.

Unless it's for egocentric purposes,
Cursed are their practices.
The dictators of the day,
Would never learn anyway.
Their modes of governance,
Attributed to suppression and ignorance.
Disobedience to the rule of law
And policies of segregation,
Spurious allegation and incarceration,
Abuse of authority and subjugation.

They would never be able to capture,
Until the time of their departure.
With total humility and indignance
Their supreme power would crumble,
Crisis persists and they'd finally fall.
The invincible will of strength admitted,
In defiance of all wars and mass killings
Dictatorial empires defeated.
